On behalf of Baret Scholars's Board of Directors and Executive Committee, we are pleased to announce $2.3 million in funding (20 full and 20 partial scholarships) available to exceptional students applying for the 2024-2025 program.

Students, parents, counselors, and schools seeking more information can visit www.baretscholars.org for the latest updates on the application process.

The Baret Scholars team has 16 full-time employees to support the organization's global operations. We live on 12 cities, hail from 14 different countries, and speak 17 languages. Our careers are a mosaic of art, investment banking, consulting, education, and more. What binds us together is a belief in the Baret mission: today's cultural literacy is only achieved by knowing yourself and the wider world.
